Congratulations to Varsity and JV volleyball teams for their victories over Lordstown last night with the victories the teams are now 8-1 and 7-2. Volleyball returns to action tomorrow night at home in a triple header against Maplewood.

Good luck to our CC team tonight at Niles

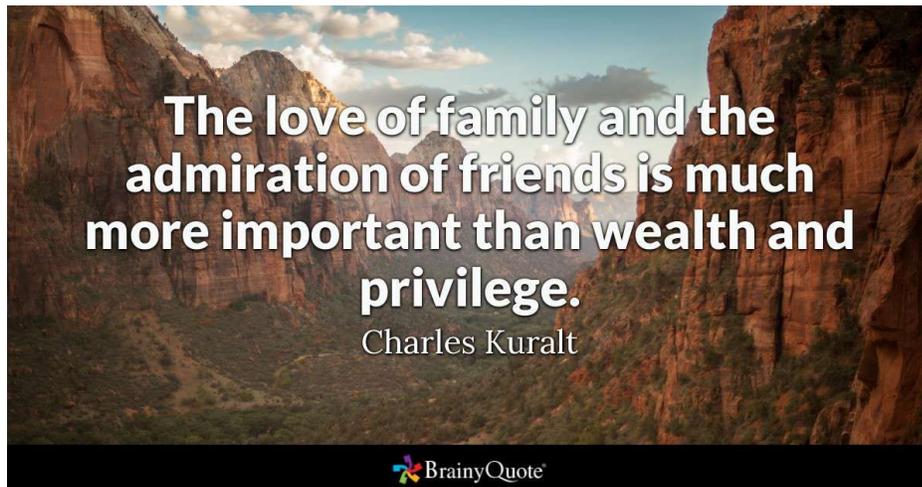

Attention Juniors, Sophomores and Freshman who ordered Athletic Banners. They are in now Office 209. Please pick them up during the first four periods at your convenience. We will only be hanging seniors banners. We will hang all other banners outside for our last home football game. If you want your banner posted, please bring it on the Monday before the final home football game or simply leave it in the office and pick them up at the end of the season.

The first robotics practice will be held this Thursday September 5th until 6 pm. If you cannot make it see Mrs. McFadden to let her know. Thank you

Any boys or girls in grades 7-12 interested in playing basketball this year, there are signup sheets in second floor office or at lunch in the cafeteria

Calling all actors and actresses! Are you interested in performing in Newbury's Drama Club's Fall Play? Well, sign up outside of Mrs. Harrison's room, 206. We will be beginning soon!

Attention sophomores and juniors, if you intend to take the PSAT/NMSQT this fall, your paperwork must be submitted by this Friday, September 13th. Please see Ms. Boyd or Mr. Painley to submit paperwork or if you have questions. Thanks!

Let's have a Great Day, #CelebrateNewbury, and Go Black Knights!
